Teacher educators' Leadership Competencies :-

08 Teacher leadership competencies are meant to be 09 a resource for identification, reflection, guidance
 10 and inspiration for participants in the Teacher Leadership 11 Institute at every stage of their leadership journey.
 12 The competencies provide the structure for the 01 Institute, an entirely new leadership development 02 program for teachers passionate about leading 03 and transforming the profession. Using these 04 competencies, the institute helps teacher leaders 05 to :-

06 1) Experience diversity, equity and cultural competence as integral to teacher leadership;

5) Design and implement individual leadership plans to put these competencies into action for the good of their students, communities, colleagues, schools and associations.

Teachers leaders can use the competencies as guideposts as they reach deep within themselves — learn about their own beliefs, dispositions, and talents, and expand their reach — taking action that advances the learning of all students and the profession of teaching.
